

SpringBoard Instructions for First-time Login

To access the SpringBoard online textbook, you must use Clever, an app management system.

Step One: Go to <https://clever.com/in/cobb>. Click on the button labeled “Log in with Clever.” You should then see a login screen where you will enter your student number for BOTH the username and the password. When prompted, you may change your password.

Use your student number for both the username and password the first time you login.
